INAUGURATION

Elaborate Preparations Are Already Being Made for That Event.

MANY CLUBS FIND QUARTERS

The Military Escort Will Very Likely Comprise at Least the Three Troops, One Battery and a Regiment from Each Brigade.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Harrisburg, Dec. 6.-The coming inauguration of General Hastings as governor of this state promises to be a very grand affair from every point of view. Already clubs from all over the state have announced their intention of being present, but as yet very few have secured quarters. The hotels, as a rule, are refusing to entertain clubs except to furnish them with meals, and as a consequence halls are in demand for sleeping accommodations. Philadelphia clubs thus far lucky enough to get in on the ground floor are the following: Penrose club, at the Columbus hotel; Fifteenth Ward and Thirteenth Ward clubs, at the United States hotel; William R. Leeds club, at the Columbus, and the Continenttal club will occupy sleeping cars with a dining car attached, Clubs from Lancaster, Reading, Williamsport, York, Mechanicsburg, Altoona, Pittsburg, Bradford, Erie, Bellefonte, Lebanon, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre and other cities have signified their intention of being present, and the next four weeks will see some tall hustling for quarters. The military may or may not be called out in a body. Adjutant General Greenland says he wants to consult with General Hastings before any action is taken, to see what he would like to have. The State college cadets will be here for certain as an escort to General Hastings. If the entire National Guard is not called out, it is pretty certain that a regiment from each of the brigades, together with the Governor's troop, City troop, Sheridan troop and one battery will comprise the military part of the procession. There has been considerable opposition, to calling out the entire guard, on the ground that the men cannot find accommodations sufficiently comfortable in cold weather.

legislature meets, when a joint commitappointed, who will see to all arrangements. It is quite likely that Senator George Handy Smith, of Philadelphia, who has three times served in the capacity, will be chairman of the joint committee. If the weather is not too severe the ceremonies will take place in front of the capitol, and the procession reviewed from the magnificent new stairway leading to the capitol, at West State street. Severe weather will compel the holding of the ceremonies in the hall of the house, but the review will take place just the same.

On the Saturday preceding the inauguration General Hatsings and family will come to Harrisburg as the guests of Governor and Mrs. Pattison at the executive mansion, so that they will be acquainted with their new home when they come to occupy it for the following four years. This is an act of courtesy that was extended Governor Pattison four years ago by Governor Beaver. Indications point to a tremendous crowd of spectators.

The House Pinms.

Chief Clerk Voorhees, of the house of representatives, is here arranging for coming session of the legislature. He claims that Resident Clerk Fetterolf will be advanced to the chief clerkship, and Reading Clerk Rex to Fetterolf's present place. Voorhees is not an applicant for re-election, as he expects to get a good political place in Philadelphia early in the year. As to the place of Journal clerk in the house Mr. Voorhees says it will go to E. J. Randolph, jr., of Pittsburg, secretary of the State League of Republican clubs. Mr. Voorhees thinks there is no doubt of the appointment of Colonel Thomas G. Sample, of Allegheny City, by Governorelect Hastings for superintendent of public printing.

Another Republican politician of prominence in Harrisburg today is ex-Marshal Harian, of Coatesville, who is canvassing the political situation with a view of announcing his candidacy for the nomination for state treasurer in 1895. He claims the east is entitled to the office next year, despite the fact that the incoming governor has selected his cabinet from Eastern Pennsylvania. Cashier Haywood, of the state treasury, is a candidate for Colonel Jackson's successor. Haywood's friends claim Senator Quay has indorsed his Pactory Inspector Watchorn has his friends to work to secure his retention by Governor-elect Hastings, but unless all signs fall, he will be removed soon after the change of administration. Captain John C. Delaney, of this city, who is being urged for Watchorn's place, says there isn't a doubt of his appointment.

TO TRIM COURT COSTS.

County Commissioners Will Favor Measures Looking Toward Economy.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Harrisburg, Dec. 6.-It has been decided, in behalf of the county commissioners of the commonwealth, to ask the next legislature to pass the following bills or amendments:

For borough, city and township pur poses the bill provides for the taxation of real estate, horses and cattle and such other property as is purely local.

FOR GAME PROTECTION.

The Legislature to Be Asked to Establish a Game Commission.

Special to the Scranton Tribune Harrisburg, Dec. 6.-At the next session of the legislature a bill will be introduced under the auspices of the Pennsylvania Sportsmen's association to create a game commission, which The arrangements for the inaugural shall consist of six members, to be ceremony will not be made until the appointed by the governor, the commission to have the power to appoint tee of the senate and house will be ten game wardens at a salary of $500 each. The commissioners shall receive only their necessary traveling expenses, but the secretary will get $900 a year and have an office at Harris

There will also be presented a bounty bill and supplement to the game law making it unlawful to kill squirrels of woodcock before Oct. 1.

LOAN ASSOCIATION WOES. The Fidelity Company Is Now Confronted

by New Difficulties. By the United Press.

Washington, Dec. 6.-The Fidelity Building, Loan and Trust association whose officers and several clerks were arrested in Pittsburg recently and held for trial on charges of attempting t defraud, has new difficulties confronting it. Attorney L. H. Poole appeared before Judge Cox in the district supreme court and made application for a receiver for the association, which has its headquarters in this city. The complainants in the case are eighteen residents of Montgomery county, Md. The court issued an order restraining the officers of the Fidelity company from interfering with the property and set the case for a hearing on Monday next.

Pittsburg 500 more loaded cars are being handled daily than during the corresponding period in 1893. Every division in the Western system reports gains.

The request that the Lehigh Valley individual operators recall their request that line prices be made equal to tidewater prices has not been acted upon, but a meeting for that purpose will be held in a few days.

The appropriation made for the month of December by the Lehigh Valley railroad for the shops along its lines, is somewhat larger than for November. This insures full work at the shops for December, menting with long rails on portions of its main line, has secured very satisfactory results from the 60-foot rail, and it will eventually supplant the present standard 30-foot rail.

The Pittsburg Wire works at Braddock have resumed on double turn, giving employment to 500 men. The Homestead Steel works have also resumed in full in all departments and will run double turn until the annual shut down, about Christmas, for repairs.
